

Annual SERI Workshop

8-9 July 2023

Gokhale Institute of Politics and Economics, Pune

The Society for Economics Research in India (SERI) will be organizing its 9th annual workshop on 8-9 July 2023 at the Gokhale Institute of Politics and Economics (GIPE). SERI's annual workshop is a platform for economists in India to present and get feedback on their research, with the aim of preparing the papers for submission to leading economic journals. There will be 10 papers discussed over two days with plenty of time for breaks. We expect the presenters to attend in person but discussants could join online.

 In order to promote cross-institutional synergies in research, we invite research groups (5-10 people) to set up meetings on common topics of interest. Group meetings could also be across fields, for instance, to explore funding possibilities by building a consortium of institutions, etc. We encourage participants to reach out to other colleagues across India and form such groups organically. A short note (no more than 100 words) should be emailed to workshop2023@seri.network or sabyasachi.das@ashoka.edu.in. A conference room to conduct a closed-door research group meeting during the workshop will be provided. In your note, please mention the potential names of participants who would attend the meeting. While we cannot provide travel support to participants who sign up for these meetings, if requested, the organizing committee can send participants a letter of acceptance to the workshop to facilitate the use of their research budgets/institutional travel funds.

Registration for the in-person workshop: All participants, excluding presenting authors and discussants, who would like to attend the workshop in-person should fill up the following Google form:
